

ROCKEFELLER IN GOOD STANDING

Certificate of Character From a Baptist Preacher.

MONEY HONESTLY GAINED

FIERCE ASSAULT UPON JOHN D.'S CRITICS.

New York, May 31.—The recent criticisms of John D. Rockefeller growing out of his gift of $100,000 to the American board of commissioners for foreign missions are declared, in an article by the Rev. Dr. Robert Stuart McArthur, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church of this city, to be published tomorrow in the Examiner, a Baptist publication, to be coarse, cruel and perhaps criminal, and to have maligned the entire Baptist denomination. He "protests against the condemnation of our churches by these cowardly and unjust attacks," declares that no one knows better than Mr. Rockefeller that he cannot buy the approval of Baptists by his millions, that Baptists would advocate his expulsion from the church if it were proved that he had acquired his money dishonestly or by means morally or socially destructive. He adds that he has investigated certain business transactions which have been severely denounced by Mr. Rockefeller's critics and has found them in accordance with the highest standards of commercial morality. Mr. Rockefeller, he asserts, is worthy of confidence, admiration and affection, and appeals for fairness of judgment for him.

Declares Attacks U. Just.

"The McArthur article is entitled 'The Baptist Brotherhood Defended,' and is in part as follows: 'The recent coarse, cruel and perhaps criminal criticisms of Mr. John D. Rockefeller have maligned the entire Baptist denomination. His detractors are its defamers. Baptists are no longer to remain silent when their denomination is made the subject of such unjust criticism. As a member of the Baptist brotherhood, I protest against the condemnation of our churches by these cowardly and utterly unjust attacks. I affirm that the censures inflicted upon the denomination and upon Mr. Rockefeller as a prominent member of a Baptist church are unjust. I have known Mr. Rockefeller for many years, and my intimate personal acquaintance with him has convinced me that he is worthy of the highest honor as a man, and of the fullest confidence, esteem and affection as a Christian.'

Praises For John D.

"I have taken pains to make careful inquiry regarding certain business transactions which have been the subject of fierce denunciation on the part of some of Mr. Rockefeller's critics, and I do not hesitate to declare, on the basis of such knowledge, that these transactions, when fully understood and fairly judged, are in accordance with the highest standards of commercial morality. My examination has shown me that many charges are based upon half truths, and that when the full truth is ascertained, these very transactions redounded to Mr. Rockefeller's honor as a leader in business and as a promoter of the Christian faith. In so enormous a business, that of the Standard Oil company, it is inevitable that agents of the company should act in a manner which would reflect credit upon the company, and without his approval. A high officer of the Standard Oil company, intimately acquainted for nearly a generation with Mr. Rockefeller's daily influence in his counsels, informed me recently that Mr. Rockefeller had always been a man of the highest moral character, and that he had never known of any correct instances of unjust and injurious over-zeal.

Shots at Gladden.

"Dr. Gladden, in one of his denunciations, quotes the denunciation of an opinion of a judge of a railroad officer for making a certain contract with an agent of the Standard. But Dr. Gladden forgets to state that this was a generation ago, that the Standard was never a party to the suit, and what is most of all to the point, that this very contract was ordered cancelled as soon as it was brought to Mr. Rockefeller's attention and before any complaint was uttered about it. Or, take the case of the Cleveland widow, now becoming celebrated. Any one who will take enough pains to read the affidavits printed and accessible, but ignored and even belittled by the hostile critics, cannot fail to see in Mr. Rockefeller's conduct the generosity, the courtesy, the magnanimity and the forbearance of a Christian gentleman.

Indignant Baptists.

"It has been affirmed by some of Mr. Rockefeller's critics that he has purchased his approval, or at least the silence, of such a body of Christians could be bought by Mr. Rockefeller's money is to excite the derisive laughter and to evoke the righteous indignation of every intelligent Baptist. No one knows better than Mr. Rockefeller himself that he cannot buy the approval of Baptists by his millions. There are Baptist leaders of today who would not hesitate for a moment to advocate the expulsion of Mr. Rockefeller from the Baptist denomination, if it were proved that he acquired his money dishonestly or by means morally or socially destructive. The Baptist leaders are becoming thoroughly indignant at the malevolent spirit and contemptible methods of Mr. Rockefeller's opponents."

Income Given Away.

Rev. Dr. McArthur declares that the critics of Mr. Rockefeller speak in the passions of the unthinking multitude and that this is assassination of character. He charges that the Baptist denomination has solicited money from an American whose wealth has been dishonestly acquired, points out that Dr. William J. Tucker, president of Dartmouth college, should not be branded as a criminal because Dartmouth college owned stock in the Northern Securities, which company the courts found to be a criminal conspiracy, says that the supposition that Mr. Rockefeller was worth a billion dollars is grossly false, and that in the last two or three years his benevolent gifts were at least twice as much as the increase in his estate; asserts that he has made a gift of high value to humanity in revolutionizing business methods, and admits that while some men have been crowded to the wall in the movements of the Standard Oil company, every competitor was urged to join it on fair and equal terms.

WAITS FOR THE GENERAL

Governor Cutler Will Take No Action Against Insubordinate Officers Until Park Returns.

Governor John C. Cutler, commander-in-chief of the National Guard, said last night that no action would be taken against the insubordinate officers and men who refused to take part in the Decoration day parade until Brigadier-General S. C. Park returns from Denver.

The general orders issued by Brigadier-General Park were undoubtedly disregarded by the officers as well as the men. Governor Cutler said, "and some action will be taken in the near future. I have not considered the matter at all, but when General Park returns I shall have to take up with him and consider what proceedings ought to be taken."

The officers' school of the National Guard was held last night at the armory, but only about half the officers were in attendance. Lieutenant-Colonel H. M. H. Lund, who was in charge, refused to say anything about the matter. Some of the other officers that were present remarked that the men of the guard had all kinds of excuses to make but that there was no reason in the world why they should not have reported for duty.

HEINTZ GREETED BY OLD FRIENDS

Former Salt Lake Railroad Man Welcomed Back to City.

WITH U. S. MINING CO.

WESTERN PACIFIC ROAD BUILDING IN EARNST THIS MONTH.

Few railroad men could come back to Salt Lake after an absence of two years in other fields to as warm a welcome as George W. Heintz, who arrived here yesterday morning to take up his duties as traffic manager for the United States Mining company.

Mr. Heintz's appointment is effective today. Yesterday was spent largely in seeing old friends made in this city while with the railroad industry. He entered the service of the Canadian Pacific in 1888 and was with this road, the O. R. & N. and the Southern Pacific for two years. The next three years he spent with the Denver, Texas & Fort Worth road, as chief clerk in the passenger department at Denver, 1891-1892, and as chief clerk in the passenger department at Denver, 1892-1893. Heintz was acting general passenger agent for the R. G. & N. in 1893. In 1899, was made general passenger agent, with headquarters at Salt Lake.

He resigned two years ago to go to the North Shore railroad in California.

PROBLEMS ARE VARIED.

Preachers, Dogs and Donkeys to be Discussed by Traffic Men.

St. Paul, May 31.—All the local railroads will be represented next Monday in Portland at the opening of the quarterly meeting of the Trans-Continental Association of General Passenger Agents of the Northern Pacific, who will be in Portland at the opening of the exposition tomorrow.

Mr. Heintz will represent the Chicago Great Western, Assistant General Passenger Agent, and General Passenger Agent Elmer will represent the Chicago Great Western.

Among the many subjects to be discussed, will be the question of increasing the minimum amount of reduced rates for clerical men from 25 or 50 cents to $1. Another problem is whether dogs, donkeys and all variety of animals used by vaudeville performers should be transported hereafter as baggage.

TO GET BUSY AT ONCE.

Home-Coming of Chief Counsel Barnett of Western Pacific.

W. J. Barnett of San Francisco, first vice president of the Western Pacific, and who is to be its chief counsel and vice president under the new arrangements perfected in New York, has returned home from the east. His arrival in San Francisco is taken as an indication of immediate activity in the line of construction. Mr. Barnett and others of the directors residing in San Francisco will hold a meeting this week for the purpose of transacting preliminary business to comply with certain state laws.

From the coast comes advice to the effect that June will see the beginning of construction east and west from Winnemucca, west from Salt Lake and from Beckwith Pass to Oroville in California. Final surveys between Oroville and Sacramento and between Sacramento and Oakland have not yet been approved.

CARS ARE BEAUTIES.

Additional Equipment For Salt Route Begins to Arrive.

The Salt Lake route is to add to its equipment thirty-two of the best cars turned out for regular passenger service in this country. Some of the new cars have already arrived, but the larger part will be received within the next week or ten days. There will be eight diners, eight day coaches, eight baggage and eight express cars, each representing the best of the St. Louis Car company output.

The new equipment is to be used, it is stated, especially for limited trains between Salt Lake and Los Angeles. In addition to the Los Angeles express and the Salt Lake express a daily limited may be put on by the Salt Lake route about September.

TO SELL TRUCKEE ROAD.

Nevada Corporation May be Purchased by Southern Pacific.

Reno, Nev., May 31.—H. M. Yerrington, secretary of the Virginia & Truckee railroad, has issued a call for all of the stockholders of the road to meet at a meeting at Carson City on June 24 and arrange for the sale of the road to another corporation. It is supposed that the Southern Pacific company is the one to be selected.

The road is now being extended into the Carson Valley to tap a large agricultural country. It is at present the main outlet of the Tonahoe and Goldfield country and is one of the best paying lines on the coast.

Agler Leaves S. P.

San Francisco, May 31.—James Agler, retired from the position of manager of the Southern Pacific company today and tomorrow morning will enter upon the duties of his new position of general manager of the California Northwestern and North Shore roads. Agler is appointed successor to J. L. Frazier, who has tendered his resignation to President Foster on account of physical disability.

Railroad Notes.

J. Wash Young, traveling freight agent for the Frisco line, has left railroading and will enter the service of a local condensed milk company. Trainmaster A. B. Stevenson of the Oregon Short Line is here to have control of the entire Idaho division. The extension in jurisdiction is effective today.

Local ticket agents note a tendency toward an early rush in the vacation line, especially in the case of Yellowstone park, which opened for the summer season yesterday.

The action filed by the Salt Lake Hardware company against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company for rebates on freight charges was dismissed yesterday on motion of the plaintiff's attorneys.

The case of W. O. Johnson against the Southern Pacific Railroad company was called for hearing yesterday in the federal court. The plaintiff sues for $20,000 for the loss of a hand and arm in a railroad accident which occurred in August, 1900.

Kenneth C. Kerr, traveling passenger agent for the Salt Lake route, will leave for Los Angeles at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon on a special Knights of Columbus train. The special will clip the regular running time a few hours, arriving in Los Angeles at 5 p. m. Monday.

HEAD BOARDS FALL.

Removal of Rotted Posts at Mt. Olivet Leads to a Misunderstanding.

Some misunderstanding has arisen as to the course of the Mt. Olivet cemetery officials in removing certain of the wooden headboards in the burial place. Some believed that the headboards were being removed in order that the grass might be cut, and that they were not being replaced.

Sexton John Sutton explained yesterday afternoon that rule 18 forbids wooden headboards except in certain places. Where such headboards are put in it is with the understanding that they shall not remain more than two years. In the past, however, headboards have been erected with no restrictions of this nature. Many, having been there years, are rotting away and frequently the boards have fallen down.

Where this has occurred, in order to preserve the general appearance of the cemetery the rotted boards have been removed and the grave designated by a numbered marble peg.

The removal of the fallen headboards at different intervals gave rise to the misunderstanding, persons not noticing that the grave was marked by a peg.
